

RJC POLICY

This document collects the ethical-social principles and values on which Jessica spa's corporate policy is based and is aimed at employees, shareholders, customers, suppliers, external collaborators, business partners, and another person who can act in the name and on behalf of Jessica spa.

1. Programmatic Policy

In the heart of Tuscany, over 30 years ago, Jessica Jewels was born.

Since then, using the most advanced technologies, he continues to create gold and silver jewels, made with the craftsmanship of the ancient goldsmith masters.

Thanks to the ability to customize its jewels and the high experience gained over the years, Jessica spa today represents excellence in Made in Italy jewelry.

The company consists of 3 factories: the registered office, located in Ponticino (Arezzo) in Via Maestri del Lavoro 24, a mechanical workshop also in Ponticino (Arezzo) in Via Bellavista 4 and a commercial branch in Sanremo (Imperia) Vicolo San Lazzaro 6.

Jessica spa is a member of the Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC).

The RJC is an organization that sets standards to promote ethical behavior, human and social rights and good environmental practices throughout the diamond, gold and platinum jewelry supply chain.

RJC has developed a gold standard for the jewelry supply chain and credible mechanisms for verifying responsible business practices through third party audit.

Respect for the person, legality, worker protection and respect for the environment represent the ethical and social values that have always been part of Jessica spa's corporate policy.

For these reasons, with the aim of improving the promotion and respect of these values, from 2019 Jessica spa decided to become a Member of the Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC), a non-profit organization with regulatory tasks, established to promote ethically responsible, human rights, social and environmental practices throughout the diamond, gold and platinum chain.

RJC has developed a gold standard for the jewelry supply chain and a credible mechanism for ascertaining responsible business practices through third party verification.

As an RJC Member, Jessica spa is committed to conducting its business in compliance with the RJC Code of Procedure (COP), as well as integrating ethical, human, social and environmental considerations into our daily activities, business planning and processes. decision-making.

As an RJC member, Jessica spa is committed to obtaining the certification that attests the company's compliance with the standard.

To this end, we have formalized our RJC programmatic policy (available at www.jessica-spa.com) by self-assessing the compliance of our activities with the RJC standard and taken all necessary measures to meet the requirements of the certification standard.

We make available to our customers and interested parties all the useful data to substantiate the results that our company has obtained from the application of this standard.

Jessica spa carries out periodic checks to ascertain that the principles set out in this policy are effectively and effectively implemented and respected. To this end, the RJC Control Committee was set up consisting of three different liaison and control figures in the field of environment and safety, human rights and security.

The RJC Committee meets annually; the meeting must be held by March 31 of each year.
